

Dr. jur Erika Váradi PhD LL.M

associate professor

Dr. Erika Varadi-Csema PhD LL.M lawyer, criminologist, mediator, MA in Law and Psychology. As a president of the Interdisciplinary Research Center for Alternative Conflict Solution and Dispute Resolution and as lecturer of the Faculty of Law of the University of Miskolc her research fields belong to the interdisciplinary scientific areas, e.g. the new challenges of 21st century' digital communities and the information society, the current questions of criminology and crime prevention with special focus on the age. As a senior researcher of the Ferenc Mádl Institute of Comparative Law she is deling with the actual questions of legal sciences on international level. She believes the solving personal or social problems, to this end she organizes conferences, holds lectures and leads the editorial board of the ADR European Review.

